2. STATUS OF ORDER

- 2.1. Whether or not issued in response to a Quotation of the Supplier, the Order shall always constitute an offer by the Company to the Supplier to purchase the Goods or Services therein upon the terms similarly stated. The Company shall only be bound by the Order (and shall not be bound by any earlier inquiry which shall never be such an offer) if (i) it is placed with the Supplier on the Company's official order form, and (ii) it is accepted by the Supplier either providing the Company a written acceptance within 21 days of the date of the Order or commencing execution of the Order. These Contract conditions shall supersede all communications (written or verbal) between the parties (including any standard selling conditions of the Supplier) which shall consequentially be of no effect.

3. MODIFICATION AND VARIATION

- 3.1. The Company may unilaterally by written notice amend the Order and the Supplier shall comply with that amendment forthwith. Within 14 days of receipt of any such notice the Supplier shall submit to the Company a statement of the consequences of such amendment and as soon as practicable the parties shall agree any necessary and reasonable adjustments to the Order reflecting those consequences.

4. QUALITY AND DESCRIPTION

- 4.1. All Goods supplied or Services carried out shall:-
[a] be of first class quality using the best materials and workmanship and where, in the case of the goods, samples have been approved or provided by the Company' shall be at least equal in all respects to such samples.
[b] conform with the quality and description and comply with the Specification and any industry norm in the Order.
[c] be capable of any standard of performance and fit for any purpose stated in the Order.

- 4.2. All Goods supplied shall be free from defect whether actual or latent.

5. INSPECTION AND TESTING

- 5.1. Before despatching the Goods the Supplier shall carefully inspect and test them for compliance with the Order. If requested so to do in the Special Conditions the Supplier shall give the Company at least 7 days' notice of such tests and the Company shall be entitled to be represented thereat. The Supplier shall supply to the Company, on request, a copy (certified as true) of the results of the said test.

- 5.2. The company shall be entitled to inspect and test the Goods during manufacture, processing, storage and on arrival at the destination, and the Services during the course of performance. If the Company exercises this right the Supplier shall at its own cost provide or procure the provision of all such facilities (including access to the premises of any sub-contractor of the Supplier and the availability of test samples) as the Company may reasonably require for the purpose.

- 5.3. If, as a result of any inspection or test under sub-condition (5.1) or (5.2) above, the Company's representative reasonably considers the Goods or Services do not comply with the Order on completion of manufacture, processing or performance are unlikely so to do the Company shall inform the Supplier accordingly.

- 5.4. The Supplier shall not be relieved of any of its obligations relative to the Order by:-
5.4.1. any inspection or testing carried out.
5.4.2. any approval given to designs, drawings or samples prepared by the Supplier, and insurance of the Goods shall be determined by the applicable INCOTERM as specified in the Special Conditions.

6. REJECTION

9. FORCE MAJEURE

6.1. if Goods or Services do not comply with the Orders terms or are, under condition 5(3), considered unlikely to do so once manufactured, processed or performed in full, the Company may without prejudice to its other rights:-

9.1. If by reason of force majeure the Supplier shall be unable to comply with its obligations under the Order it shall immediately inform the Company and the Company shall subject to the terms of sub-conditions (9.2) below allow the Supplier such extended period for performance of its obligations as shall in all circumstances appear to the Company to be reasonable but which shall not in any event exceed the period for which the force majeure prevails.

6.1.1 reject the Goods or Services in question or the entire delivery of which they form part (whereupon the same shall immediately become at the Supplier's risk) and have the Supplier credit the Company with the cost thereof immediately, and / or

9.2. Should force majeure continue for:

6.1.2 require the Supplier, without any extension to the Completion Date, promptly to replace or repair the Goods or Services in question free of all cost and at the Supplier's risk and any such replacement shall be subject to the Order's terms, and/or

9.1.1. The extended period referred to in sub condition (1) above, or 9.1.2. A period of 60 consecutive days, or 9.1.3. An aggregate of 60 days in any one period of 180 consecutive days

6.1.3 require the Supplier to defray all the Company's additional costs, expenses and losses (whether direct or consequential) arising from such defect or non-compliance.

The Company shall be entitled without prejudice to any rights then accrued to it to cancel its Order and may as its own option (a) return any Goods delivered up to the date of cancellation as against the Suppliers refund of any part of the price already paid or (b) return those Goods and/or the benefit of any Services so far performed and reimburse the Supplier at its reasonable costs and expenses incurred in providing those Goods or Services and no matter which option is exercised the Supplier shall bear all the costs of the Company in obtaining the Goods or, as the case may be, the remainder of the Goods & Services elsewhere.

6.2. If within 12 months from the date of acceptance of any Goods by the ultimate user any defect appears therein which results from a failure to conform with the Order, and the Company notifies the Supplier in writing thereof, the Supplier shall with all reasonable speed rectify the defect without any cost to the Company or the ultimate user.

9.3. For the purpose of sub conditions (9.1) and (9.2) above the expression "force majeure" means any event or circumstances (whether arising from natural causes, human agency, or otherwise) beyond the control of the Supplier including strikes, lockouts or other industrial action (other than in the Suppliers premises), war, riot, civil commotion, aircraft, fire, flood, earthquake, tempest, or explosion.

7. DELIVERY / TRANSPORT / PACKING

10. WARRANTIES AND INDEMNITIES

7.1. The Goods must be packed in such a manner as to ensure their safe transit and be delivered in accordance with our instruction. All packages must have marked on them the Suppliers name, description and quantity of the contents, our part number (if specified on the Order), and our Order number. The Supplier will be fully responsible for the collection of any returnable packaging materials belonging to themselves.

8. RISK & LOSS IN TRANSIT / MANUFACTURE

10.1. The Supplier warrants that the design (other than where the Company has provided a detailed design for the Goods) construction and quality of the Goods and Services will comply in all respects with any statute, statutory rule or order or regulation at the time when the Goods are delivered or the Services rendered and that their sale or use by the Company will not give rise to any infringement or alleged infringement of any British or foreign patent, trade mark, trade name, registered design, design or other proprietary right.

8.1. Subject to sub-condition below, risk in the Goods shall pass to the Company on the later of completion of off-loading and satisfactory performance of any qualitative tests at the Destination. Any Goods lost or damaged in transit or during off-loading shall be replaced by the Supplier forthwith upon notification from the Company of such loss or damage and shall be deemed not to have been delivered until so replaced. For this purpose, notification to the Supplier's carrier shall be effective notice to the Supplier.

10.2. Without prejudice to the terms of any warranty given by the Supplier in these conditions all warranties and services guarantees attaching to the Goods or Services shall not only be for the benefit of and

(sub condition) in the case of an overseas Supplier, risk in the Goods and the obligations of the Supplier and the Company relative to transit & freight charges enforceable by the Company's customers and for users of the Goods and Services.

- 10.3. The Supplier undertakes to indemnify the Company against all loss, damage, liability, cost, expense or claim (including claims made by third parties under the 1987 Act) which the Company may suffer or incur by reason of any breach of the Order's terms by the Supplier.

11. TITLE

- 11.1. Without prejudice to any right of rejection which may accrue to the Company under the Order, title to the Goods or to any Goods made available to the Company in the course of the Supplier's performance or the Services shall pass to the Company on the earlier of delivery and the Completion Date (whether or not fully manufactured or processed at that time).

12. PRICE, PAYMENT AND CONTINUITY OF SUPPLY.

- 12.1. The price for the Goods or Service shall be as stated in the Special Conditions and shall be a fixed price exclusive of any value added or other tax which the Supplier may be obliged by law to levy and subject only to variation pursuant to condition 3.
- 12.2. Payment of the price shall be made after a minimum of 60 days following the date of receipt of fully correct invoice, or delivery - whichever shall be the later - PROVIDED ALWAYS that the Company shall be under no obligation to pay for Goods or Services which do not comply with the Order. The Company shall be entitled to offset against any payment to be made by it any sum then either owed to it by the Supplier or the subject of any bona fide claim made by it against the Supplier.
- 12.3. The Supplier undertakes to accept further purchase orders for the Company relative to similar Goods and/or Services at prices and delivery lead-times no less favourable to the Company than those agreed for this Order having regard to the then prevailing economic circumstances.

13. SUPPLIERS HEALTH AND SAFETY

- 13.1. The Supplier shall ensure that its employees, sub-contractors & agents comply with (i) all the Company's procedures relating to discipline, fire, health, safety & security whilst on the Company's premises, and (ii) all statutory provisions, regulations, orders and bye-laws of any Government or local authority relating to the provision of the Goods and Service.
- 13.2. The Supplier shall make available to the Company adequate information as to the use for which the Goods have been designed and tested under any conditions (including the degree of maintenance) necessary to ensure that when put to that use the Goods will be safe, free from hazard and without risk to health for employees or customers of the Company.

14. INSURANCE

- 14.1. When the Supplier undertakes any work relative to the Goods or the Service on the premises of the Company or any third party the Supplier shall insure in an amount not less than the greater of the amount specified in the Special Conditions and £1,000,000 per event against all losses, claims, demands, proceedings, cost changes and expenses for injury (including death) or damage to any person or property which result from execution of the Order.
- 14.2. The insurance will be effected with an insurer, which at the Company's option shall be subject to its approval, and the Supplier shall, if so requested to do by the Company, ensure that both the policy is effected in joint names of Company and the Supplier or the beneficial interest of the Company is noted on the policy. The Supplier will whenever requested by the Company produce to the Company a copy of the policy and the receipt for payment of the current premium and will advise the Company forthwith of any act or omission which may lead to the cancellation or non-renewal of the insurance.
- 14.3. The Supplier shall procure that any sub-contractor effects insurance similar (but of no lesser amount) to that required of the Supplier by sub conditions (1) and (2) above.
- 14.4. Should the Supplier or any sub-contractor effect insurance pursuant to this condition in excess of £1,000,000 as aforesaid then the Company shall be entitled to the benefit of all that insured sum.
- 14.5. In the event that the Supplier fails to comply with this condition the Company may at its option provide such insurance and the Supplier shall be obligated promptly to reimburse the Company with the relevant premiums.

15. TERMINATION AND CANCELLATION

- 15.1. Without prejudice to any other right of termination granted to the Company under the Contract Conditions or the general law of the Company shall be entitled to terminate the Order and any other purchase order placed by it with the Supplier if the Supplier compounds with its creditors executes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors has a bankruptcy order made against it or being a company enter into voluntary or compulsory liquidation or has presented against it a petition for its winding up or has an administrator receiver or manager appointed over all or part of its assets or has presented against it an application of such an administrator or takes or suffers any similar action in consequence or indebtedness or becomes insolvent or commits a breach of any of its obligations under the Order or any other contract between the Supplier and the Company or if the Company

Such items shall be at the risk of the Supplier and insured by the Supplier at its own expense. The Company does not warrant the adequacy of any tooling, data, patterns, material and other equipment furnished by it nor shall it accept liability for any such as are received by the Supplier in a damaged state under or in connection with the Order unless such damage is notified to the Company within five days of the receipt by the Supplier of the same.

- 16.2. All scrap arising from materials and other items free issued by the Company shall remain the property of the Company and must be disposed of by the Supplier in accordance with the Company's wishes (if made known) and all applicable laws and regulations , and the proceeds of any such disposal must be credited to the Company.

17. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 17.1. The Order and the subject matter thereof shall be treated as confidential by the Supplier and any sub-contractor of the Supplier shall be similarly bound.

18. GENERAL

- 18.1. The Supplier shall not be entitled to assign or sub contract the Order without the prior written consent of the Company. Any permitted assignment or sub contract shall not relieve the Supplier of its obligations under the Order.

- 18.2. Any waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of the Order shall not be considered as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision.

- 18.3. Any failure to or delay in enforcing any provision of the Order by either party shall not be construed as a waiver by that party or the right afforded to it by that provision.

- 18.4. Any Special Conditions shall prevail in the event of a conflict with these conditions.

- 18.5. Should any term of the Order be found to be unenforceable or void then that term shall be severed from the remainder of the Order's terms, which shall continue in full force and effect.

- 18.6. Any notice required by the Order shall be duly given if delivered to the registered office of the recipient, being a Company, or otherwise , to its address set out on the Order , and delivery shall be deemed to occur at the time of delivery if effected by hand, 24 hours after being posted properly addressed first class postage , pre-paid if affected by post and on receipt of the sender's machine of a report confirming effective transmission , if effected by facsimile or other electronic communication.

- 18.7. Conditions 6, 10, 12.3, 15.2, 16, 17, 18.5, 18.8 and 18.9 shall survive any termination of the Order.

- 18.8. The headings used in these conditions shall be for convenience only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of the same.

- 18.9. The Order shall be governed by the Laws of England & Wales.
